

Meet Philip

Philip Nash

Chief Financial Officer, EMEA

Sharing stories that matter

Philip joined Hearst Networks EMEA in January 2024 as Chief Financial Officer. He is responsible for maximising the business both operationally and financially. Philip is focused on supporting his colleagues in driving growth across the EMEA businesses.

Prior to Hearst Networks, Philip held numerous finance, transformation, and integration roles at international media, sports and tech companies.

His latest role was as Chief Financial Officer and Director at Eleven Sports Network, managing the Group finance team and seven divisional FDs across the US, Europe, and Asia during high revenue growth and business transition. Eleven Sports Network merged with DAZN in 2023, creating the world's leading live sports streaming service.

Philip previously served as CFO of Liverpool FC, where he oversaw the financial planning of the Anfield ground transformation, having previously been Financial Director for the construction of the new Arsenal Stadium.

Outside of work Philip relaxes by getting outdoors with his family, whether on the beach, on the piste, walking his dog in the woods or attempting to tame his garden.